

DEFINING THOUGHTS

Lawrence W. Barsalou

Emory University

Tim Bayne

University of Oxford

José Luis Bermúdez

University of Washington in St. Louis

John Campbell

University of California, Berkeley

Max Coltheart

Macquarie University, Sydney

Vinod Goel

York University, Toronto

Benoit Hardy-Vallée

University of Toronto

Pierre Jacob

Institut Jean Nicod, Paris

Albert Newen

Ruhr-Universität Bochum

Hannes Rakoczy

Max Planck Institute for Evolutionary
Anthropology, Leipzig

Matthis Synofzik

Universitätsklinik Tübingen

Gottfried Vosgerau

Ruhr-Universität Bochum

The workshop “Defining Thoughts” aims at working out a notion of thought fully usable in interdisciplinary research. While each discipline, from linguistics and philosophy to psychology and neuroscience, traditionally uses its own notion of thought, “Defining Thoughts” brings together researchers from each of these disciplines to discuss the different notions of thought and to develop a common notion making interdisciplinary communication possible.

Dr. Matthis Synofzik

Dr. Gottfried Vosgerau

Prof. Dr. Albert Newen

Kindly sponsored by:
Volkswagen Stiftung

Local Workshop Management: Dr. Gottfried Vosgerau, Institut für Philosophie, Ruhr-Universität Bochum

IBZ Bochum | June 5-7 2008

www.rub.de/philosophy/thoughts

please register on our homepage