Rudolf-Carnap Lectures

Ruhr-Universität Bochum
March 7-9, 2018

RUB

Thomas Metzinger

Johannes-Gutenberg-Universität Mainz

Levels of Selfhood and the Gradual Emergence of a First-Person Perspective

Lectures

1. What is the deepest level of self-consciousness?
2. Mental autonomy, cognitive agency, and abstract levels of self-identification
3. Personal-level perspectivalness and non-centred awareness

Öffentlicher Vortrag (08. März - 18.00 Uhr - Hörsaal HGA10)
Virtuelle Realität und Künstliche Intelligenz:
Neue Fragen für Gesetzgebung und Angewandte Ethik

Call for Papers

We have reserved several slots for presentations by PhD-students and Postdocs. The topic should be related to the main theme of the conference in a loose sense.

Papers will be selected based on a blind review process and presenters will be financially supported.

We invite PhD students and postdocs to submit abstracts (max. 1000 words), making thesis and argument transparent, until February 1st, 2018. For details please check www.rub.de/philosophy/carnaplectures

Registration

Participation is free but seats are limited.
Please register by email to nike.zohm@rub.de by February 20th, 2018.

More info: www.rub.de/philosophy/carnaplectures

VolkswagenStiftung

Organization

Prof. Dr. Albert Newen, Prof. Dr. Tobias Schlicht
Institute of Philosophy II, Ruhr-Universität Bochum

m·b·c | Center for Mind, Brain, and Cognitive Evolution