

Faculty of Philosophy and Educational Science

Affidavit

I hereby declare that I have written this paper independently and have used no sources or resources other than those cited.

I further declare that I have identified all material —whether in concept, content, or wording — taken from others (e.g., from books, journals, newspapers, encyclopedias, the Internet, etc.) have been identified as such, i.e., that I have cited the respective source in the text or in the notes (this also applies, where applicable, to tables, sketches, drawings, illustrations, etc.).

I acknowledge that

- a proven failure to cite sources will be considered an attempt at deception or plagiarism (“intellectual theft”);
- in the event of plagiarism, the paper will be graded as unsatisfactory;
- any proven case of plagiarism will be punished as an administrative offense within the meaning of Section 63(5) of the Higher Education Future Act (§ 63 Abs. 5 Hochschulzukunftsgesetz) and may also result in dismissal from the university.

If I used AI (artificial intelligence) applications in my thesis, the nature and scope of such use were agreed upon in advance with the examiners, and all steps in which AI was used were documented in the appendix to the thesis.
